“An Elder Falls....” A four act theatrical play

Written, produced and presented by Wayne S. Saltsman, M.D., Ph.D., C.M.D.

Tuesday, May 20, 2008, 10am -12pm

This theatrical presentation format allows the “audience” to follow a patient and family through the medical system after an elder suffers a fall. This presentation is educational and informative and a unique learning experience. Attendees will learn about elder falls as a major public health and healthcare issue and how to reduce the risks for falls. Transitions of care and potential consequences from falling will also be discussed.

Dr. Wayne Saltsman is Chairman of the Lahey Clinic Department of Geriatric Medicine, and Assistant Professor, Tufts Medical School.

Working with Caregivers – An Evidenced-Based Approach

Miranda Heibel and John Jope

Wednesday, June 25, 2008, 10am – 12pm

Successful care, whether from hospitals, home or community-based settings, is based on knowing the needs of both the care recipient and the family caregiver. This presentation includes information and current research about caregivers as an at-risk population. Resource information will be provided on caregiver assessment models and guidelines including fundamental principles of a family caregiver assessment. Presenters will share case examples and provide additional information and considerations specific to the male caregiver.

Miranda Heibel is the manager of the Family Caregiver Program at Minuteman Senior Services. John Jope is the Director of the Arlington Council on Aging
